

Shopping for Housing: Where to Start

There are many places to look when you are shopping for your new home. Here are a few tips to help you get started!

Online

You can use many different websites to search for a rental home online. You can narrow your search by location, price, and number of bedrooms to help you find the rental home that's right for you.

Try using websites like:

www.apartments.com

www.craigslist.com

www.hotpads.com

www.trulia.com

www.zillow.com

Watch out for scams online! If a listing looks too good to be true, it probably is! Contact your Housing Navigator if you have questions about a listing.

In Person

Many properties put up “For Rent” signs to advertise homes available to rent. You can look for signs when you walk, drive, or take the bus through neighborhoods and call the number on the sign to contact the property owner.

Make sure to check if a home is in an opportunity neighborhood at www.creatingmoves.org!
